FERRYVILLE FALL FEST AND KICKAPOO BRAVE RIDE SEPT 17, 2016

Due to wet conditions at the park this year, the Fall Fest was held at the Ferryville Village Hall parking lot. Beautiful weather aided in a wonderful day for Fall Fest.

Complete with music by Cowboy Tom Baker and food by Capelle's and Kettle Korn by Matty, a variety of vendors offered their wares. Thank you to all who came out.

It was a beautiful day for the Kickapoo BRAVE ride. The Ferryville loop's Rest Stop was enjoyed by the riders who rode the Ferryville route, and included homemade breakfast breads, Bananas, Peanut Butter and GoMacro bars

RED, WHITE AND BLUEBILL

This special waterfowl hunt weekend was held Sept 30, Oct 1 & 2, 2016. American Veterans were given the opportunity to go on a guided hunt at no cost to them.

For the third year in a row this event was held in Pool 9 hosted by Flyway Fowling Guide Service – Capt. Todd Lensing, and Grandview Motel in Ferryville. Along with other guides, helpers, and media approximately 24 to 30 people were in attendance. Hardline Outdoors film company attended once again. They produced a fantastic video last year, which can be seen on Youtube!

FALL MIGRATION DAY

NOV 5 2016

The Ferryville Tourism Council is sponsoring the 4th annual Fall Migration Day on Saturday, November 5 from 9-11 AM at the downtown River View Park. This event is an opportunity for birders of every interest level to come to the observation deck where spotting scopes will be set up and attended by expert birders to view the migrating waterfowl. Ducks, geese, tundra swans, and white pelicans are possible sightings. Bald eagles and members of the crane family are also moving about at that time. Hot chocolate and treats will be provided as well as handouts of interest to birders. Whether you want to add a bird to your life list or if you are a beginning bird watcher, please bring the whole family and stop by to take a look. It is always a great day to view our beloved Mississippi River and its ever changing scenery.

PEAK TO PEAK

The Driftless Area has some of the most spectacular Fall colors and scenery can be a part of this Fall Show of Colors by taking part in the Peak to Peak this year is the inclusion of the Wisconsin Great River Road as part of the Pikes Peak or Lansing, this outing will make your fall leaf viewing the most scenic route that takes you from sunrise to sunset! Start with an incredible Mt. Hosmer or McGregor at Pikes Peak. Then follow our mapped route through the scenic beauty of the bluffs, forest and woods with numerous lookouts along the route. Stop at the Black Hawk Bridge or the Marquette-Joliet Bridge and travel along the river (Hwy 35). Finish your day with a fantastic Mississippi River sunset at the river to enjoy the spectacular colors that only the Mississippi Valley can provide.

Along the way enjoy local dining spots and spend part of your afternoon shopping at our favorite stores in McGregor, Lansing, Ferryville, DeSoto and Lynxville. Dining and shopping 'specials' will abound for our happy adventurers. It's a full day of beautiful fall colors, delicious food and fun shopping. Pick any day in October and we'll be your starting point and we do the rest.

Contact or call either the McGregor~Marquette Chamber of Commerce, Main Street Lansing or the Ferryville Tourism Council to request your FREE Peak to Peak Leaf and Bridge to Bridge Tour packet which includes a map, activity suggestions and valuable coupons to area dining, lodging and retail shops.
