Ferryville Fall Bird Migration Day, Nov. 1, 9-11 a.m.

Join in on seeing the great Fall Bird Migration by coming to Ferryville's River View Park on Saturday, Nov. 1 from 9 – 11 a.m. and seeing the many ducks, pelicans, swans and other birds on the Mississippi River as they migrate south to warmer climates. Bring binoculars. The Mississippi River is our gateway to seeing this awesome spectacle in the bird world. This day is also a celebration of the one year anniversary of Ferryville's recognition as the smallest Bird City in Wisconsin.

Dan Jackson, President of the Coulee Region Audubon Society is back with us to help you identify the birds you see from the two spotting scopes. River View Park is an observation deck located in downtown Ferryville, on State Hwy 35 – The Great River Road.

Fall Bird Migration Day is sponsored by the Ferryville Tourism Council. Families, beginning birders, and all who love nature are welcome! Coffee & treats available.
